

264

PAGE 26 AUGUST 9, 2007 TRINITY STANDARD

Dr. Sally Dee Brooke-Palmer

TRINITY - Dr. Sally Dee Brooke-Palmer, Ph.D., 72, formerly of the Westwood Shores subdivision, near Trinity, died May 8, 2007, in Phoenix, Ariz., as a result of lung cancer.

In consideration of her wishes, her body was donated to medical science.

She was born Jan. 11, 1935, in Houston and was a licensed minister, a drug-alcohol counselor and a mother.

Dr. Brooke-Palmer was instrumental in the continuation of education in Alcoholics Anonymous and other alcohol/drug related addictions across Texas and other states.

Survivors included her daughter, Shelly (Rainey) Bates of Glendale, Ariz.; and a number of other relatives and friends.