

Parker

Grapeland Messenger 10/27/2005

James O. Brown

Graveside services for James O. Brown age 86 of Casa Grande, AZ were held Wednesday, October 26, 2005 at 10:00 a.m. at Parker Cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of Bailey & Foster, Grapeland.

Mr. Brown passed away Friday, October 21, 2005 as Casa Grande Regional Medical Center. He was born April 28, 1919 in Grapeland. He was an ordained minister for the Assembly of God Church for over 50 years. He pastored in Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona. He pastored the Casa Blanca Assembly of God and the Indian Assemblies of God Churches. He became a missionary to the native Americans in 1961 and delivered papers for the Casa Grande Dispatch for 25 years.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a son, Randall Dale Brown, Indian son, Delmer Mikil and Indian son, Daniel Pablo.

He is survived by his wife, Ruby Brown of Casa Grande, AZ; daughters, Ann Lindsey of Texarkana, AR, Sandra Hawkins of Beaver, OK, Bonnie Johnson of Albuquerque, NM, Elaine Kewish of St. Maries, ID; an Indian son, Elmer Mikil; fourteen natural grandchildren; twenty-two natural great grandchildren; five Indian grandchildren and eight Indian great grandchildren.