JESSIE TURNER BROWN

Jessie Turner Brown, age 97, of Crockett, passed away Sunday, Feb. 22, 1998. Mrs. Brown was born Nov. 24, 1900 in Crockett. Mrs. Brown was a lifetime resident of Crockett. She owned and operated a ladies dress shop on East Houston for some 29 years. She retired so that she would have more time for her family and always beautiful yard. She was an Eastern Star member, Chapter #509, where she served as Worthy Matron, Deputy Grand Matron and secretary for 13 years. Jessie Brown had been a member of the First Baptist in Crockett since 1922 where she served as superintendent of several Sunday school departments and a class teacher. She was a faithful member of the sanctuary choir. The love of her life was her family, home and many friends.

Mrs. Brown was preceded in death by her husband, Delbert Brown, Sr.; son, Dr. A.B. Brown, Jr.

Survivors include her grandson, Bill Brown and wife, Gail of Katy; granddaughter, Becky Brown Griffith and husband Joe of Crockett; daughter-in-law, Jean Brown of Crockett; brother, Jack Turner and wife, Margaret of Beaumont; sisters-in-laws, Mary Turner of Waxahachie, Gladys Turner of San Angelo; nephew, Charles Adkin Spain of Houston; nieces, Ann Spain of Austin, Janice Dulaney of Austin, Cindy Reed of Llano; great-granddaughters, Brittany Brown of Katy, Laurie Griffith of Houston; great-grandson, Jody Griffith of Crockett.

Funeral services for Mrs. Brown were held Wednesday, Feb. 25, at 11 a.m. in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. E.P. Ramsey and the Rev. Jeff Moran officiating. Interment followed in the Evergreen Memorial Park.

Pallbearers were Joe Griffith, Perry Ramsey, Charles Adkin Spain, Dan Julian, Charles Kent, Smitty Dean James Waldrop and Jody Griffith.
