John S. Brown Dead.

Mr. John S. Brown died Sunday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jim Merriwether, at Kennard. Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the Merriwether home, with religious services by Rev. J. L. Spears, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Crockett. Interment was in Cedar Point cemetery. Mr. Brown was 86 years old and a Confederate veteran. He had lived in Houston county for many years, coming to Texas from South Carolina when a young man. He leaves three sons—Sloan Brown of Crockett, Charley Brown of Kennard and Frank Brown of Groveton, and three daughters—Mrs. Jim Merriwether and Mrs. Fannie Harkins of Kennard and Mrs. Jim Cook of Albuquerque, N. Mex. All the children were present for the funeral. Mr. Brown leaves a number of grandchildren and other relatives. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church many years. He was known as a good citizen, and the community as a whole suffers a loss in his death. The Courier extends sympathy to the bereaved relatives and friends.
