

Cedar Point

Newlyweds Die In Auto Wreck

A young newlywed couple was killed and another couple seriously injured in a two-car head-on collision on U. S. 290 one mile west of Hockley in northeast Harris County Wednesday, Aug. 26.

Dead are Richard R. Brown, 22, of Crockett, and Paula Trenck Brown, 21, of Houston, who were married Saturday.

Injured in the accident Wednesday were Howard F. Leonard Sr., 45, of 757 Bateswood, Apt. 176, and his wife, Delores, 39, both in Ben Taub Hospital. Their sons, Mark, 14, and Howard Jr., 11, were treated and released.

No charges were filed.

The Browns were on their way to College Station, where he was a Texas A&M senior majoring in agricultural engineering.

Mrs. Brown, a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Trenck, 3301 Elegia, Houston. She worked as a research technician at M. D. Anderson Hospital before her marriage.

Richard Brown was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilse Brown of Kennard.

RICHARD RAYBURN BROWN

Mr. Richard Rayburn Brown 22, of Rt. 1, Crockett, died in an automobile accident near Hockley Wednesday, Aug. 26.

Mr. Brown, a senior student at Texas A&M University, was a native of Houston County, and a member of the Cedar Point Presbyterian Church. He was a graduate of Kennard High School, class of 1966.

Graveside funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Cedar Point Cemetery, with Rev. David Sebesta of the First Presbyterian Church officiating.

Pallbearers were James L. Sachtleben, Gary A. Hooper, Barry A. Davidson, Pete Julian, Johnny F. Harrison and Wilse Mason Brown.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilse Brown of Kennard; a brother, Carl Brown of Kennard; paternal grandfather, C. T. Brown of Kennard; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis R. (Hop) Robison of Crockett.

Callaway Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.