

November 4, 2007

Woodrow Wilson Brown

STAFFORD -- Woodrow Wilson "W.W." Brown, 89, of Sugar Land died Wednesday, Oct. 17, 2007.

He was born Jan. 8, 1918, in Diboll. He was a Houston business owner for over 40 years. He was a 32nd Degree Mason, a member of Temple Lodge No. 4 for 54 years. In addition, Mr. Brown was a member of the Scottish Rite and the Arabia Temple. He loved to fish and hunt, but was known as someone whose family came first.

He was preceded in death by his son, Charles L. Brown Sr.

Survivors include his wife of 57 years, Helen Gaines Brown; daughters, Lori Lowe and her husband Jack, Elizabeth Greenwood and her husband Mark and Nelda Gibson and her husband Lloyd; daughter-in-law, Patty Brown; eight grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren; and many relatives and friends.

Funeral Services were held Saturday, Oct. 20, at Earthman Southwest Chapel, Stafford.

Interment followed in Petrie Cemetery in Crabbs Prairie.

Memorials may be made to The Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children, 6977 Main St., Houston, TX 77030.