DEBBIE BURNS

Miss Debbie Burns, age 43 of Lovelady, passed away peacefully in her sleep on Thursday, February 12, 2004 at her residence in Lovelady. Miss Burns was born April 4, 1960 in Crockett to Barbara Baker Waisath and Wilfred J. (Bud) Waisath, Jr. Maternal grandparents were Jewel and Chales Jesse Baker of Lovelady. Paternal grandparents were Thelma and Wilfred J. Waisath. Miss Burns attended schools in Port Lavaca and Conroe and Tyler Junior College in Tyler. Miss Burns loved "the simple life" and was most at home in the rural community of Lovelady, where she resided for several years. Everyone who knew her will miss her and remember her for her zest for life, her warm and friendly personality, and her wonderful sense of humor. Miss Burns truly loved her family and her community. Miss Burns was a member of the Lovelady Methodist Church and worked as a restaurant manager.

Survivors include her two loving sons Scott Burns, of Houston, Matthew Totin, of Lovelady; mother Barbara Baker Waisath, of Lovelady; father Bud Waisath, of Waco; brother Wilfred J. Waisath, III (John), of Kingwood; sister Cynthia Cunningham and husband Patrick, of Tampa, Fla.; nephews Patrick, Jack, Sean and Bryan; niece Katie; several uncles, aunts and many other relatives, friends and loved ones.

Funeral services for Miss Debbie Burns were held Saturday, February 14, at 2:00 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church in Lovelady with the Rev. Doug Howell officiating. Interment followed in the Lovelady Evergreen Cemetery.
