

HCC

12-3-00

ARVEL RAY CAGLE

Mr. Arvel Ray Cagle, age 67 of Crockett, passed away Nov. 25 in the Crockett Care Center. Mr. Cagle was born January 2, 1933 in Culman County, Al. He was a veteran in the U.S. Air Force having served during the Korean Conflict. He was also a retired welder.

Survivors include five children, Donald Ray Cagle of Crockett, Kimberly Bates and husband, Dubley, Rebecca Cook and husband, Lyle, Melissa Mitchell and husband, Ricky, all of Longville, La., and Stephen Ray Cagle and wife, Stephanie of Indiana; eleven grandchildren, brothers, Wilford Cagle of Parrish, Al., and Giles Paul "G.P." Cagle of Cordova Tn.; sisters, Frances Jolly of Parrish, Al., and Delois Shelton of Veddensburg, In.; and numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Mr. Cagle is preceded in death by his parents, Ott and Lena Cagle.

Graveside funeral services for Mr. Cagle were held in the Chita Cemetery Wednesday, Nov. 29 at 1 p.m. with the Rev. Arlon Gunnels officiating. Interment followed.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home