Crockett High School Class of 1937 survivors holds their reunion Saturday but Thomas Paige Callier won't be there.

Born on Sept. 11, 1919, Callier died on May 13 in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Memorial services were held May 16 at the Hahn-Cook Street and Draper Funeral Home with entombment at Hillcrest Mausoleum and Memorial Gardens in Dallas.

Callier had last contacted the local CHS classmates of 1937 by telephone on May 12. His plans were to drive down to Crockett starting on May 23 and include a visit to A&M University.

Survivors include his wife Peggy, a son, two daughters, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
