

*Antioch
Lovelady*

JIM CAMPBELL

Mr. Jim Campbell, age 80 of Lovelady, passed away Saturday, June 19, 2004 in The East Texas Medical Center-Crockett. Mr. Campbell was born September 6, 1923 in Houston and had been living in Lovelady for many years.

Mr. Campbell was a veteran of the U.S. Navy having served during World War II. Mr. Campbell worked and retired as an auto repairman and he also worked for the Texas Department of Corrections. Mr. Campbell was a member of the Wayside Bible Church.

Survivors include her sister Lorena Jeffries, of Houston; daughter in action and his best friend Shirley and Bill Hughes, of Lovelady; grandchildren Chris Hughes and wife Leah, of Grays Lake, ILL., Tracy Carroll and husband Buck, of Weldon, Amanda Graham and husband Nickolas, of Fayetteville, N.C.; great-grandchildren Jesse, Rusty and Kaillyn Carroll, Caleb and Sarah Ceuk.

Preceded in death by his wife Ruth Campbell; parents James W.C. Campbell, Sr. and Matylou Cross Campbell; and brother-in-law Jim Jeffries.

Funeral services for Mr. Jim Campbell were held Wednesday, June 23, at 9:00 a.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with Dr. A. Charles Allen officiating. Interment followed in the Lovelady Antioch Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home