

file

WILLIAM BRIAN CAMPBELL

Funeral services for William Brian Campbell, 36, of Alto will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, July 26, in the Carroway Funeral Home Chapel in Lufkin with the Rev. Jerry Kelley and the Rev. David Valentine officiating. Interment will follow in Ivie Cemetery in Houston County.

Mr. Campbell was born Nov. 21, 1964, in Crockett and died Monday, July 23, 2001, in a Rusk hospital of injuries sustained in a vehicle accident.

Brian resided in Alto for the past four years and formerly resided in Lufkin. He was a self-employed rancher and farmer. He was a member of Redland Baptist Church and the Smyrna Hunting Club.

Survivors include his wife, Laura Campbell of Alto; daughters, Katie Campbell and Jennifer Campbell, both of Alto; parents, Ray and Sammie Campbell of Lufkin; brother and sister-in-law, David and Pam Campbell and their children, all of Alto; mother-in-law, Virginia Douglas of Lufkin; paternal grandmother, Winnie Lee Campbell of Crockett; brother-in-law, Glen Douglas of Lufkin; a number of aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of friends.

Pallbearer will be Jeff Hudspeth, Ricky Sammons, Andy Gardner, Steve Gardner, Denny Kio and Jeff Carpenter.

Honorary pallbearers are Lee Averitt, Rick Dannelley, Tom Pender, Richard Larabell, Willis Hargraves and Jim Hargraves.

Memorial may be made to the Center for Hearing and Speech, 3636 W. Dallas, Houston, TX 77019-1704.

Carroway Funeral Home