

HCC 3/25/2001

CHARLES CANNING

Mr. Charles Henry Canning, age 56, of Crockett, passed away Friday, March 16, 2001 in Tyler. Mr. Canning was born March 11, 1945 in Springfield, Vt.

Mr. Canning was a member of the Shady Grove Baptist Church. He enjoyed RV'ing, outdoor activities, and was passionate about snow skiing. He was a Christian Belief Therapist, a member of the Gideons and served as a Prison Ministry Coordinator, and was proud to have made a difference in so many prisoners lives by teaching them the truth of Christ.

Survivors include wife, Mary E. Canning of Crockett; daughters, Christine Bristow and husband, Durwood of Crockett. JoAnn Strickland and husband, Kenneth of Hunnington, Mary Surrency and husband, Vann of Latexo, and Lisa Ann Canning of Sulphur Springs; son, Sean Christopher Canning of Sulphur Springs; sister, Grace Canning Pierce and husband, Donald of Philidelphia, Pa.; sister-in-law, Juanita Ann Read and daughter, Dana Daniel of Houston; 10 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and numerous other relatives and friends.

Mr. Canning was preceded in death by his parents Charles Henry Canning and Nellie Chase, and his special angel great-granddaughter, Kindra Nichole.

Funeral services for Mr. Canning were held Sunday, March 18 in the Claybar Waller-Ramsey Family Chapel with the Rev. Paul Carlin officiating.

Interment followed in the Brookside Memorial Park in Houston on Monday, March 19.

Claybar • Waller-Ramsey
Funeral Home