Laura Dixon Cannon

TRINITY - Services for Laura Dixon Cannon, 92, of Trinity were held at 4 p.m. Saturday, March 12, 2005, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Forrest Wiggins officiating.

Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mrs. Cannon died Thursday, March 10, at Huntsville Memorial Hospital.

She was born Feb. 11, 1913, in Trinity County, the daughter of Jim and Clara Waltz Dixon and was the last survivor from among eight brothers and sisters. She was a homemaker, mother and grandmother and worked for many years at the Basket Factory in Trinity.

Mrs. Cannon was preceded in death in 1970 by her husband, Clyde Cannon; two grandchildren, Tommy Joe Lyons and Susan Clay; and three great-grandchildren, Richard Poteet, Ryan Moore and Scottie Cannon.

Survivors include two sons and a daughter-in-law, Alton and Edith Cannon and Morris Cannon; three daughters and their spouses, Margaret and Walter Lyons, Syble Vanderpool and Jim Perry and Joy and Billy Hinson; 11 grandchildren, Terri, Cindy, Laura Lynn, Walter Wynn, Richard, Denise, Kim, Deana, Joanna, Russell and Candith; 15 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
