

Trinity Standard - Jan. 11, 2001

Clapp

Ellis Edward Carroll

TRINITY -- Services for Ellis Edward Carroll, 74, of Riverside were held at 3 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 4, 2001, at the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home Chapel in Trinity with the Rev. Jack La Lane officiating.

Burial followed in the Clapp Cemetery.

Mr. Carroll died Jan. 2, 2001 at his residence in Riverside.

He was born April 11, 1926 in Trinity and served in the military from 1950-52 during the Korean Conflict. He was a self-employed and was involved in a number of businesses throughout his life including logging, dirt and rock work and restaurants. He enjoyed trail rides and dancing.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James Barnie and Lucy Ann Carroll; a son in 1968, Ellis Carroll Jr.; two brothers, Clarence Carroll and Robert Carroll; and four sisters, Blanche Mason, Gertrude Atkinson, Virgie White and Adelle Tisdale.

Survivors include his wife, Alanna Carroll; a son and daughter-in-law, David and Jackie Carroll; two daughters and their spouses, Brenda and George Jordy and Selbya and Carl Woods; two stepsons, Joe Walden and his wife, Ladonna, and Mitchell Walden and his fiancée, Angelin Jamison; two brothers and their spouses, Horace and Novelle Carroll and Barney and Betty Carroll; three sisters and two brothers-in-law, Nellie Waltz, Margie and Brady Shaw and Mattie and Harry Driskell; 13 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers included Trey Lamb, Frank White, Leon White, James Waltz, Roy Waltz and Don Carroll. Charles Mason was an honorary pallbearer.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.