

Melvin Robert Carter

TRINITY -- Services for Melvin Robert Carter, 79, of the Deep River Addition near Trinity were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 9, 2003, in the Trinity Funeral Home's Chapel of the Chimes with the Rev. Basilio Montez officiating.

Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mr. Carter died Thursday, Aug. 7, in Cameron.

He was born Feb. 2, 1924, in Humble and was employed as a roughneck in the oil field business. He was preceded in death by two sisters, Alzada "Snookie" Enmon and Juanita Tullos; and a brother, Thurman Carter.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Leila Meshell Carter of Trinity; two daughters and a son-in-law, Elizabeth Ann Hopson of Zavalla and Melba Fay and Gregg Wells of Trinity; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Robert Dale and Debbie Carter of Porter and Steve Wayne Carter of Cameron; two sisters, Violet Hood and Ruth Wells; 11 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.