

Grapeland City

Grapeland Messenger 6/28/2001

Rites Held For Mrs. Cheatham

Funeral services for Louise Cheatham, age 89, of Grapeland were held Wednesday morning, June 27, at the First Baptist Church, Grapeland, with Rev. Charles Haley and Rev. Kenneth Mobley officiating. Burial followed in the Grapeland City Cemetery under the direction of Bailey & Foster, Grapeland.

Pallbearers were Bill Glynn Cheatham, Terry Scott Cheatham, Allen Cheatham, Darrell Wallace, Doug McIntire and Tim Schafer.

Mrs. Cheatham died Monday morning, June 25, 2001, at East Texas Medical Center, Crockett. She was born July 30, 1911 in Houston County to James Lester and Naomi Cook Nichols. Mrs. Cheatham was a homemaker and a faithful member of Grapeland's First Baptist Church.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Cheatham was preceded in death by her son Jerry Cheatham in 1973; a grandson, Clint Cheatham; three sisters Ruby Musgrove, Eva Mae Grimes, and Minnie Irine Nichols; two brothers, Idas Nichols and Richard Henry Nichols.

Survivors include her husband Earl Cheatham of Grapeland; a son and daughter-in-law, Billy Earl and Glenda Cheatham of Grapeland; two sisters, Edith Murdock and Oleta Wallace, both of Grapeland; a sister in law, Geraldine Cheatham of Grapeland; 4 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.