

William Cherry

BEEVILLE -- Graveside services for William Cherry, 86, of Pettus were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, April 7, 2003, in the Glenwood Cemetery with the Rev. Wes Barnett officiating.

Mr. Cherry died Thursday, April 3, in the Christus Spohn Hospital in Beeville.

He was born Nov. 20, 1916 in Trinity County, the son of the late Revis and Viola Parker Cherry. He was married to Murline Cole on March 17, 1943 in Groveton and was a retired oilfield worker. Mr. Cherry was a member of the Baptist church.

He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers, Tommy Cherry, Floyd Cherry and Jerry Cherry.

Survivors include his wife; three daughters and two sons-in-law, Lois and Wayne Johnson of Bridge City; Rebecca and Eddie Denning of Pettus and Ola Greene of Pettus; a son and daughter-in-law, Dell and Jenise Cherry of Beeville; a sister, Katy Pearl Craven of Spring; eight grandchildren, Jeff Johnson, Kip McJunkins, Paula Knight, Patti McJunkins, Ray McJunkins, Adam Axford, Christine Cherry and Colton Cherry; and seven great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were his grandsons, Galloway and Sons Funeral Directors of Beeville handled the arrangements.