

Trinity Standard
Nov 27, 2005

Farrle Lee Sheppard Chessher

TRINITY - Services for Farrle Lee Sheppard Chessher, 88, of Trinity were held at 2 p.m. Friday, Nov. 4, 2005, at the Trinity Tabernacle Church with Bro. Roger Goins officiating.

Burial followed in the Carlisle Cemetery.

Mrs. Chessher died Tuesday, Nov. 1, in the Avalon Place Nursing Center in Trinity.

She was born Jan. 15, 1917, in San Jacinto County and was employed as a nurse. She worked for many years at the medical clinic in downtown Trinity, at the Trinity Memorial Hospital and the nursing home.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 66 years, Burton O. Chessher; a son, Nelton D. Chessher; three infant children; a brother; and a sister.

Survivors include a son and daughter-in-law, Davis and Sieglinda Chessher; two daughters and sons-in-law, Robbie and Oscar Hall and Doris and Cleon Ashworth; a daughter-in-law, Melbo Chessher; 15 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; nine great-great-grandchildren; and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Pallbearers included Douglas Howard, Rodney Parish, Joe Whitley, James Barnett, Robert Sheppard and James Copenhaver. Honorary pallbearers were Lynn Reynolds and Harold Williamson.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.