Chism

Graveside services for Raymond "Ray" Chism, 30, of Dayton, were held at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, May 23, at Magnolia Park Cemetery with Rev. Mike Blackburn officiating. He was born April 30, 1977 in St. Joseph, Missouri, the son of Danny r. and Sharon Meagher Chism. He had lived in this area for the past 24 years and graduated from Dayton High School in 1997. While at DHS he was a trainer in the athletic department. Ray was a member of the Trinity Baptist Church and was a charter member of the 321 Volunteer Fire Department. He was currently employed at the Waffle House in Baytown, and was known for helping others. He enjoyed computers, cars, and working in the yard. Mr. Chism passed away on May 19, 2007. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Raymond Meagher; uncle, Raymond Meagher; and aunt, Tammy Meagher. Survivors include his mother, Sharon Woosley and husband, Don, of Dayton; his father, Danny Chism of Missouri; his sister, Dawn Nelson of Dayton; his brother, Charles "Billy" Nelson Jr. of Dayton; grandmother, Leora Meagher of Missouri; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends. Pace-Stancil Funeral Home, Dayton, was in charge of arrangements.
