

12

Charles Edward "Chris" Christiansen

TRINITY - Services for Charles Edward "Chris" Christiansen, 69, of Trinity were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 6, 2006, at Trinity Church of Christ with Rev. Bill Yasko officiating.

Mr. Christiansen died Sunday, Dec. 2 in Trinity.

He was born July 22, 1937, in Hawaii. He was employed by Engineering Co. as an office manager and opened a retail business selling graphic arts supplies. He was one of the first airplane mechanics and worked for Southwest, Hobby Air and Tiger Airlines. He also was employed by the U.S. Department of Defense and traveled around the world.

Following his retirement, he worked for Trinity Manor Apartments in the maintenance department.

Mr. Christiansen was preceded in death by his father, Charles Christiansen; and a brother, Michael Christiansen.

Survivors include his wife of 32 years, Robbie Christiansen; two daughters and a son-in-law, Robyn and Mark Schumann and Lerae Worthington; his mother, Olivia Christiansen; six grandchildren, Anna Schumann, Eric Schumann, Luke Schumann, Alex Worthington, Wesley Worthington and Margaret Worthington; and a number of other relatives.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.