

October 14, 2007

Clark

A service of remembrance for James H. Clark, 32, of Batson, was conducted on October 3, 2007 at 2:00 p.m. at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church with Reverend Alvin Tomlinson and Pastor Carlton Bailey officiating. Interment was held at Guedry Cemetery, Batson.

He was born in Duncan, Oklahoma, and was a self-employed welder and a member of the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church-Marysee of Moss Hill.

Mr. Clark passed away on September 30, 2007 in Cleveland. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Lois Deckert of Batson; great-grandmother, Mildred Ray; great-grandmother, Neddly Tedly; and grandfather, Peewee Clark.

Survivors include his girlfriend, Joanna Williamson; mother and stepfather, Jeanette and Carl Selby of Humble; father and stepmother, Bo and Carolyn Clark of Crockett; son, Ty Clarf of Douson, Louisiana; daughter, Skylar Doucet of Duson, Louisiana; brother, David Smith of Thicket; sister, Tonya Jeansonne; niece, Colbi Jeansonne; grandparents, Joe Deckert of Batson, Beverly Clark of Sour Lake and Donald Taylor of Batson.