

Trinity Standard
6-29-06

Willard Lee Clark

TRINITY -Willard Lee Clark, 79, died in Groveton on Wednesday, June 14, 2006.

No funeral services are planned.

Born Jan. 2, 1927, in Deweyville, he was the son of Albert and Annic Mae Williams Clark.

He served his country in the U.S. Army and was awarded the Purple Heart for combat wounds received during his service.

Survivors include a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.

she was the daughter of Elbert and Elna Madden. She was a member of the Baptist faith and grew up in the Boontown area. She resided in Trinity for a number of years before moving to Crockett. She spent the final six years of her life in Lufkin.

She was preceded in death by her husbands, William "Bill" F. Robinson and Rhubin "Boots" Caldwell; and a sister, Ruby Madden.

Survivors include two sons, Billy G. Robinson of Lufkin and Gary L. Robinson of Trinity; a daughter and son-in-law, Nelda J. and Johnny Parker of Dallas; a sister, Ruth Stroud of Centerville; two brothers, Elbert Madden Jr. and L.A. Madden of Houston; four grandsons; one granddaughter; three great-grandchildren; and a number of cousins, nephews and nieces.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked for contributions to help offset funeral expenses or for memorial donations to the Boontown Cemetery Association.