

Grace Helena Coleman

TRINITY -- Funeral services for Grace Helena Coleman, 79, of Trinity, were held Saturday, Aug. 17, 2002 at the Chapel of the Huntsville Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas Cemetery.

Mrs. Coleman died August 14, 2002. Grace was born on June 9, 1923 in Yutan, Nebraska.

She had resided in Trinity since 1965 where she and her husband Versel founded the Flying V Ranch and owned and operated Coleman Auto Parts. After retiring from the auto parts business, she and her husband opened and operated the Country Farm Restaurant on Hwy 19. Prior to 1965, Mrs. Coleman lived in Clute, Texas where she and her husband owned and operated Coleman Auto Parts stores in Clute, Angleton, and Brazoria. She was a member of the Clute United Methodist Church.

Grace was preceded in death by her husband Versel, mother Marie E., father Harry P. and sister Lorine Leah Jurgensen.

Survivors include her 5 children, Marian Spence and husband Dan of the Woodlands, Anita Gilbert and husband James of Huffman, Maurice Coleman and wife Dana of Lovelady, Harry Lynn Coleman and wife Vicki of Trinity, Debbie Biegler and husband Walter of San Antonio, and her sister Maryetta May Craig of Clute; her nine grandchildren, Lance Spence of Denton, Christopher Spence of San Antonio, Jarrett and Matthew Spence of The Woodlands, Chance and Chad Gilbert of Huffman, Marcia Gentry of Ft. Rucker, Al, Barry Coleman of Lovelady, Wesley, Lyndsey and Amber Coleman of Trinity; and 9 great grand children.

Huntsville Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.