

MRS. PELLEAR
BROWN COMER

Services for Mrs. Pellear Brown Comer of Tennessee Colony were held on Saturday, October 20 at 2:00 p.m. at the Church of the Living God in Tennessee Colony. Burial followed in the Jimmison Quarter Cemetery. Bishop Annelle Castelle officiated; Emanuel Funeral Home of Palestine was in charge. Mrs. Comer died on Monday night at home, October 15.

Mrs. Comer was born on June 3, 1912, in Massey Lake Community in Tennessee Colony. She attended school in Massey Lake Community. She was a member of Church of the Living God in Tennessee Colony. She was married to the late Mr. Eddie Comer in 1942.

Mrs. Comer was preceded in death by her husband in 1978, her parents, a daughter, Virginia Comer, six siblings, Evelyn Coleman, Lettie Hopkins, Charlie Brown, Ervin Brown, A. J. Brown and Isiah Brown.

Survivors include two daughters Sudie Lorean Hubbard and Lucille Hopkins, both of Tennessee Colony; a brother Vester Brown; a sister, Mary Ellen Coleman of Tennessee Colony; eight grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Emanuel Funeral Homes