

83

HCC
Aug 10, 2000

MARGARET JORDAN
COOK

Mrs. Margaret Jordan Cook, age 80 of Grandbury passed away Sunday, Aug. 6, 2000 in Grandbury following a lengthy illness. She was a former resident of Crockett retiring to Grandbury in 1993. Mrs. Cook was born in Ft. Worth on March 6, 1920 and graduated from Mart High School, Mart and attended North Texas State Teachers College and Baylor University. She was a member of First Baptist Church, Grandbury and a 56-year member of the Order of Eastern Star, Mart Chapter, No. 109.

Mrs. Cook was preceded in death by her son, Boyd Thomas Aringdale and her parents Abbie and Tom Jordan.

Survivors include husband of 47 years Glenn J. Cook of Grandbury; son and daughter-in-law Bill and Elizabeth Cook of Dallas; grandson Jordan Hays Cook of Dallas; sister and brother-in-law Mary Evelyn and Howard Scott of Ft. Worth; her special friend and caregiver Mary Foust of Grandbury; several cousins and a host of friends.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cook were held Wednesday, Aug. 9 at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, Bryan with the Rev. J.W. Kornegay officiating. Interment followed in College Station Cemetery.

Callaway-Jones Funeral Home