

April 19, 2007

Raymond F. Cox

LIVINGSTON – Funeral services for Raymond F. Cox were held Monday, March 26, 2007, in the Brookside Funeral Home Chapel in Houston, with the Rev. Don Willis officiating. Interment followed in Brookside Memorial Park.

A memorial service was held March 27 at the First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Don Willis officiating, assisted by Senior Pastor Rev. Mike Mayhugh and the Rev. James Frazier.

Mr. Cox was born Nov. 18, 1915 in Crisp and died Friday, March 23, in Timberwood Nursing Home.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Euclid and Lula Cox and a brother, Aubrey. Survivors include his wife of 49 years, Bobbie Cox; sons, Douglas and wife Jane of Longview, Robert and wife Sharon of Magnolia and Don and wife Colette of Magnolia; grandsons, Bradley Cox of Flower Mound, Donovan Cox of Porter, Donald Cox Jr. of Magnolia and Randy Morrison of Dallas; granddaughters, Andrea McCutcheon of Longview, Ashley Cox, M.D. of Houston, Brooke Cox of Magnolia, Crystal Koza of Brooklyn, N. Y., Nicole Orner of Phoenix, Ariz. and Madelaine Cox of Magnolia; 14 great-grandchildren and sister, Utah Hodge of Plano.

Mr. Cox served in the U.S. Army during World War II and was honorably discharged in 1945. He received a 50-year pin from the Masons of Trinity Lodge No. 15.

The family has requested memorials be made to First United Methodist Church of Livingston.