

Dixon
Hopewell

HCC

Sept 8, 2005

CURTIS (J.B. PARKER)
CREAG SR.

Mr. Curtis (J.B. Parker) Creag Sr., age 73, passed away Sunday, August 21, 2005. Mr. Creag was born December 1, 1931 to Albert (Johnny) and Carruthie Parker.

Mr. Creag was baptized at an early age at Union Prairie Baptist Church and graduated from William High School. Mr. Creag married Alice Marie Young in 1951. In 1953 he moved to Santa Anna California. In 1963 he moved back to Texas, where he began to worship with Hampton Memorial C.O.G.I.C.

Survivors include his seven daughters Lois Henry, Mable Brown, Nina "Gale" Watson, Yolanda Faye, Deavory (Ray), Clydie, Cynthia (Dave), all of Crockett; sons Rev. Shaundo (Patrice), of Hockley, Jason (Mariang), of Tyler, Curtis (Heather), of Groveton, Donald (Annie Mae), Reginald (Diane); 34 grandchildren; 29 great-grandchildren; two sisters Ethel Pierre, Debra Ann Duncan, both of Crockett; five brothers Albert Jr., of Houston, Lee, Will, Michael, Doug Collins, all of Crockett; two adopted children Carolyn Fields Davis and Evelyn Burns McKnight; three aunts Hattie Clay, Rosa Lee Strange, both of Crockett and Frankie Dixon, of Houston; special cousin V.L. Parker.

Preceded in death by his parents Johnny Parker and Carruthie Parker; wife Alice Marie; daughter Tonya; son Willie; and sisters Johnnie Mae and Lena.

Funeral Services for Mr. Curtis (J.B. Parker) Creag Sr. were held Saturday, August 27, at 2:30 p.m. in the New Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Crockett with pastor Winston Spencer, the Rev. V.L. Parker and the Rev. Lynn Bolton officiating. Interment followed in Dixon Hopewell.

Pallbearers were Lee Collins, Will Collins, Doug Collins, Michael Collins, Albert Parker Jr. and Sam Watson.

Honorary Pallbearers were Shaundo Creag, Reginald Creag, Jason Creag, Curtis Creag Jr., Ray Ervin and Patrick Masters.

Emanuel Funeral Home