

Antioch
Lovelady

Louis Talmadge Curtis

TRINITY -- Services for Louis Talmadge Curtis, 81, of Trinity were held at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, July 15, 2003, in the Trinity Pines Baptist Church with the Rev. Kenneth Myers officiating.

Burial followed in the Antioch Cemetery near Lovelady.

Mr. Curtis died Saturday, July 12, near Trinity.

He was born Jan. 12, 1922, in Bellaire and was a retired carpenter.

Survivors include a daughter, Deborah Curtis Wyatt of Trinity; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Michael Louis Curtis and Randy All and Tammy Curtis, all of Trinity; five brothers and sisters and their spouses, Virginia Husband of Houston, Ruth and Dale Beck of Houston, Robert and Wanda Curtis of Victoria, Betty and Bob Holland of Houston and Arthur "Bo" and Wanda McMichael of Mont Belvieu; five grandchildren, Brandy Wyatt, Christopher Hughes, Lou Ann Holley, Cal Allison and Melissa Allison; three great-grandchildren, Robbie, Crysta and Johnathon; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.