Albert King Daniel

Mr. Albert King Daniel, 56-year-old native of Houston County and known affectionately to his many friends as "Slow", died Thursday, Nov., 14, in a local nursing home following a lengthy illness.

Mr. Daniel was a graduate of the University of Texas and was a member of the Texas State Bar Association. He had his own civil law practice in Crockett from 1932 to 1942. He served as state representative from Houston County for four terms, and during the administration of Governor James Allred he served as state tax collector, an office which has since been abolished.

Mr. Daniel also served Houston County for 10 years as county judge.

During World War II, Mr. Daniel was a trial judge advocate and in this capacity he investigated and prepared for trial some 7,000 special and general court martial cases and acted as trial judge advocate for these same cases.

This tour of duty continued for 18 months while he was assigned to the 10th Reinforcement Depot, Litchfield, England. He also acted as a war crimes investigator with the 15th and 7th Armies in Europe.

A lifelong member of the First Methodist Church of Crockett, Mr. Daniel was born on July 5, 1907, in Houston County. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ruth King Daniel of Crockett; two sisters, Mrs. Faye Oatman of Austin and Mrs. M. D. Hardy of Liberty; and two brothers, I. A. Daniel of Deer Park and Morris S. Daniel of LaMarque.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, from the Callaway Memorial Chapel with the Rev. E. Jewel Strong, Methodist minister of Crockett, officiating. Interment was in the Glenwood Cemetery, and pallbearers were Bob Overstreet, Dan Julian, Neal Clements, Phil Nix, Alf Roark, and T. D. Craddock.
