

Guiceland

Loye Daniels

Services for Loye V. Daniels, 83, of Palestine, were held at 2 p.m. today at Herrington/Land of Memory Chapel with the Rev. Dan Manuel officiating. Burial was at Guiceland Cemetery.

Mrs. Daniels died Wednesday at Memorial Mother Frances Hospital in Palestine.

She was born April 13, 1915, in Houston County, to William Monroe and Sudie Kate Phillips Weisinger. She attended Elkhart schools and had lived in Anderson and Houston counties all of her life.

Mrs. Daniels was an active member of Crockett Road Church of Christ. She also was a Sunday School teacher for many years and a volunteer at the Palestine Public Library with the adult education program, and at Memorial Mother Frances Hospital. She was a homemaker.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Orin Daniels, in 1984; sisters, Ina Mae Hestand, Fannie Belle Vannah, Ruby Martin and Melba Weisinger; and a brother, Delma C. Weisinger.

She is survived by a son, Orin Spencer Daniels of Fort Worth; sisters, Ima Lea Pierce of Palestine and Odessa Porter of Houston; and one grandchild.

1 p.m. Sunday at Oak Grove Baptist Church in Centerville with the Rev. H.M. Walker officiating. Burial will follow in Burton Cemetery under the direction of Emanuel Funeral Home No. 2 of Teague.

Mrs. Middleton died Wednesday at Hermann Hospital in Houston.

She was born May 31, 1952, in Centerville, to Leon and Mable Middleton.

Mrs. Middleton graduated from Centerville High School in 1970. She attended Houston Community College and was a member of St. Luke First Missionary Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her father, Leon Middleton; and a brother, Michael Middleton.

She is survived by a son, Dylan D. Middleton of Houston; mother, Mable Middleton of Centerville; sister, Margaret Middleton; and brothers, Rufus Middleton, Kenneth Middleton, Wayne Middleton and Don Middleton, all of Houston; and one grandchild.