MRS. MOLLY ANN
GEISELMAN DARSEY

Molly Ann Geiselman Darsey, born June 15, 1950 in Houston, Texas, lost her battle with cancer on Wednesday, the 14th of September 2005. A graduate of The Kinkaid School in Houston, Molly attended Mount Vernon College in Washington, D.C. and went on to graduate from The University of Texas at Austin. Molly spent many wonderful years living in Houston, Austin, Crockett, Ft. Worth and Lake Richland Chambers.

Molly was married to Tommy Darsey of Crockett, Texas. The lake house in Crockett was the center of special childhood memories for Molly with her family and friends. Molly led a dedicated life and cared for everyone she met. Molly started volunteer work at Texas Children's Hospital in Houston. While in Ft. Worth, Molly devoted much of her time as a volunteer working tirelessly for Trinity Valley School, Race for the Cure, and Mayfest while a member of the Ft. Worth Junior League. She was a certified mediator volunteering her time to DRS of Ft. Worth. Along with her volunteer work and raising her boys, Molly also had a business career. In Ft. Worth, she was Regional Sales Manager for Doncaster clothing, and then was co-owner with her husband in a distribution company. Last year she became a licensed real estate agent and worked with Heritage Texas Properties. She had an infectious smile and personality proven by her many friends. As active as she was helping others, her life was complete with her sons and her husband.

Molly was preceded in death by her parents, Kathleen and Grover Geiselman Jr., her sister, Kathleen "Kookie" Geiselman, and her grandparents, Marguerite Geiselman, Grover Geiselman Sr., Victoria Maude Geiselman Davis, Margaret and Peter Gallagher. She is survived by her husband, Tommy Darsey, her two sons, Michael and Drew Darsey, her sister, Peggy Rice, her brother, Grover

"Tony" Geiselman III, her nieces, Katherine Rice Stout and Cullen Geiselman and her nephews, Gray Geiselman and Grover Geiselman, brother-in-law Stew Darsey, sister-in-law Nell Tucker and their families, as well as an extended family and many close friends.

Following a private graveside at Glenwood cemetery, a memorial service will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. on September 19, 2005 at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, 5501 Main Street in Houston, Texas 77004 with Rev. Terry J. Thompson officiating. A reception will follow in the Fondren Hall at the church.

Honorary Pall Bearers: Milton Allen, Maggie Hindman, Pat Lorimer, Susan Peck Massey, Elizabeth Topper Nash, Annie Owen-Pontez, Charlie Pannill, Gayle Haynes Roane and Steve Taylor.

The family would like to thank Linda White-Hilton, Dr. Luis Camacho and the staff at M.D. Anderson as well as Dr. John Lerma and the staff and volunteers at The Hospice at the Texas Medical Center.

Those wishing to make memorial gifts may do so to The Hospice at the Texas Medical Center or St. Paul's Methodist Foundation.
