Rites Held For J. T. Dauphin of Latexo

Funeral services for J. T. Dauphin, 69, of Rt. 3, Crockett, were held Friday, November 3, at 2:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Grapeland, with the REv. Kenneth Mobley officiating. Burial was in the Parker Cemetery, near Grapeland, under the direction of Hassel & Foster.

Pallbearers were Bill Huff, Herman Murchison, Leonard Barnes, Ralph Walton, Jimmy Garner and Earl Cheatham. All deacons of First Baptist Church were designated Honorary Pallbearers.

Mr. Dauphin was born June 20, 1903 in Lovelady, Texas, to the late William Thomas Dauphin and Martha Elizabeth Taylor Dauphin, and he died Wednesday, November 1, at 8:15 a.m. in his home following a long illness. He was a member and deacon of the first Baptist Church, Grapeland, and served for several years as Sunday School Superintendent. During World War II, he served in the U.S. Navy from October 7, 1942 until July 12, 1945. Prior to retiring in 1965, he was employed in the Legal Department of Humble Oil & Refining Company, Houston and he moved to Crockett after retirement.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Madge Bean Dauphin, Crockett; two brothers, W. D. Dauphin of Houston, and Floyd Dauphin of Baytown; two sisters, Mrs. A. R. Johnson of Webster and Mrs. W. ol. Holleman of Centerville.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
