

33
Trinity Standard Jan. 8, 04

Milton Asberry Davidson

TRINITY -- Services for Milton Asberry Davidson, 86, were held at 1 p.m. Friday, Jan. 2, 2004, at the Trinity Funeral Home with the Rev. Mike Loftin officiating.

Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mr. Davidson died Tuesday, Dec. 30, 2003.

He was born Sept. 2, 1917, in Apple Springs. He was known for his love of the music of Shania Twain, Fats Domino, Little Richard and Chuck Berry.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Mae Belle Gates Davidson.

Survivors include two daughters and sons-in-law, Glenda and Fred Patton and Mary L. and Rick Winnett; a son, Milton Robert Davidson; two sisters and a brother-in-law; Helen Hutson and Mary Lee and Marvin Dunn; eight grandchildren and their spouses, Timmy and Telisa Rowe, Janie and Ron Brady, Wayne and Michelle Rowe, Carl "Bubba" McWilliams, Regina and Marc Rodriguez, Misty Woods, Anthony Davidson and Pamela Davidson; 20 great-grandchildren; Jessica, Aliesha, Veronica, Tiffany, Crystal, James, Josh, Devonic, Daonna (and husband Marty), Kolbey, Dalton, Brittany, Cole, Marissa, Lamar, Nicholas, Marcilyn, Mason, Ashton and Brett; two great-great-grandchildren, Robert "Bubba" and Kaleyana; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers included Bobby Nicholds, Richard Jones, Bobby Rushing, Neal Smith, Clegg DeWalt and John Spillman.

Honorary pallbearers were Lamar McWilliams, Anthony Davidson, Bubba McWilliams, Timmy Rowe, Wayne Rowe and J.L. English.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.