Mrs. Davis and Gilbert spent many happy years from 1949 to 1971, ministering Christian Church congregations in Camden, Ark., Ayden, N.C., Galena Park, Hereford and Shreveport, La. Mrs. Davis was a prolific painter. Mrs. Davis's art adorns the homes of many friends and family members.

In her last years and up until weeks before her passing, she took Neely and Elizabeth to weekly painting lessons and helped them discover that they had a hidden talent passed down from Mimi.
