OREN DELBERT DAVIS

Mr. Oren Delbert Davis, age 92 of Pennington, passed away Wednesday, November 29, 2006 in the East Texas Medical Center-Crockett. Mr. Davis was born September 8, 1914 in Houston County, and lived most of his life in Houston County and Trinity County. Mr. Davis was a graduate of the Friendship School in Pennington. Mr. Davis was a member of the Piney Creek Baptist Church. In addition to being a logger, hunter, and trapper, he was a retired employee of the Houston Independent School District. Mr. Davis will long be remembered as a kind man of value, a good father and dedicated husband, and a quick wit with the ability to find a good laugh in just about any situation. Some of his best times were spent camping and fishing with his family, working in the garden, coon-hunting, and making hand-made toys for the grandchildren.

Survivors include his daughter Ella M. Trevathan and husband Bill, of Groveton; son Harmon E. Davis, of Riverside; son Sam D. Davis, of Katy; 16 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; brother Cleon Davis, of Pennington; numerous nieces, nephews and many friends.

Joined in heaven by his wife 68 years, Maggie M. (Hendry) Davis.

Preceded in death by his father and mother, Samuel F Davis and Jennie E (Hill) Davis; brothers Hulon and Ralph Davis; son James D. Davis; daughter-in-law, Jeannie Davis; and grandson Rodney L. Kee.

Funeral services for Mr. Oren Delbert Davis were held Sunday, December 3, at 2:00 p.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Terry Gibson and the Rev. Linley Ham officiating. Interment will follow in the Hill Cemetery.

Pallbearers were grandsons Samuel Davis, Donald Pugsley, Roy Davis, Michael Kee, Shawn Pugsley, Brock McClure and Gerald Davis.
