

TARLUS DESHAWN
DAVIS

Tarlus Deshawn Davis was born March 5, 1974 in Houston. He was a 1992 graduate of Crockett High School. At an early age he joined Progressive Baptist Church and after moving to Trinity joined Lone Star Baptist Church. Tarlus united in Holy Matrimony to LaQuinta Jenkins with 1 child born to their union.

Life's departure was on October 2, 2005 in Houston at age 31.

Survivors are: devoted wife; LaQuinta Davis of Trinity, 2 sons; Tarlus Jr. of Trinity, Tyrek of Grapeland, 1 daughter; Ashley of Katy, 2 step-children; Dominique and Truevion of Trinity, mother; Betty Lane and step-father; Ernest Bass of Crockett, father and step-mother; MacArthur and Ruby Braxton of Natchitoches, La., 3 sisters; Felicia of Houston, Candance of Dallas, Melissa of Natchitoches, 3 brothers; Demarcus of Houston, DeAndre and Jaylon of Natchitoches, grandparents; Joe and Delois Davis of Crockett, 6 aunts; Lois Parker (Albert) of Richmond, Addie Jackson (Bobby) and Sarah Davis of Crockett, Celestine, Elizabeth, and Rosemary of Louisiana, 9 uncles; 7 of Louisiana, Joe Davis Jr. (Janetta) of Crockett, Alton Davis (Melinda) of Lufkin, a host of great uncles and great aunts, a special great aunt; Iva Campbell (James), special great uncle; Roy Marshall (Mae) of Crockett, sister-in-law; Valery Jenkins (Stephen) of Trinity, 2 brothers-in-law; Nathaniel and Keith Jenkins of Trinity, mother-in-law; Carolyn Jenkins of Huntsville, father-in-law; Rev. Nathaniel Jenkins (Elaine) of Smithville, numerous, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, a special cousin who was like a brother; Artis (Jabbo) Davis.

Funeral services were held Saturday, October 8, 2005, 1 p.m., Lone Star Baptist Church, 800 F.M. 230, Trinity, Rev. Douglas DeBose, pastor and officiant. Eternal resting place was Trinity Community Cemetery.

Casketbearers were: Derrick Simon, Forrester Barker, Broderick Sandles, Nick Williams, Jasper Callahan, Stephen Fransaw.

McClain-Cleburn Funeral Service