

H.C.C. Thursday - May 7, 1998

Creek

CECIL DEAUMAN

Cecil Deauman, age 74, of Crockett, passed away Tuesday, April 28, 1998 at East Texas Medical Center Crockett. Mr. Deauman was born Nov. 15, 1923 in Glenfaun in Rusk County, and had been a resident of this area for most of his lifetime. He was a veteran of World War II and Korea serving in the United States Navy, and was also awarded the Purple Heart. Mr. Deauman was the long-time owner and operator of Don Fishfarms and was a member of the South Loop Church of Christ.

Mr. Deauman was preceded in death by his wife, Robbie Deauman; grandson, Scott McDonald.

Survivors include his daughter, Toni McDonald and husband, Mitch of Crockett; son, Bill Deauman and wife, Carolyn of Crockett; grandchildren, Tim McDonald and wife, Tara of Crockett, Chance McDonald of Crockett, Brad Deauman of Crockett; great-grandchildren, Cade McDonald of Crockett, Ty McDonald of Crockett; sister, Lucille Johnson of Troup; half-sister, Ethel Stringer of Lufkin; numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Graveside funeral services for Mr. Deauman were held Thursday, April 30 at 5 p.m. in the Creek Cemetery with Mr. Carl Allen officiating. Interment followed.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Scott McDonald Memorial Scholarship Fund at Citizens National Bank or to any Lions Club member.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home