Aurbin T. Dickey

Funeral services for Aurbin T. Dickey, 54, of Rt. 2, Elkhart, were held Tuesday, July 14, at 2 p.m. in Hassell & Foster Chapel, Palestine, with the Rev. L. Allen Holley and Calvin Dickey officiating. Burial was in the Evergreen Cemetery, Percilla.

Pallbearers were W. V. (Bill) Dressell, L. A. Johnson, F. f. Odom, R. R. Broyles, A. J. Orr and Virgil Harris.

Mr. Dickey was born Aug. 20, 1915 in Percilla to the late Andrew Kenneth Dickey and Mrs. Molly Brumley Dickey, and he died Sunday, July 12, at 7 p.m. in a Galveston hospital following an illness of several weeks. A locomotive engineer, he had been employed by Missouri Pacific Railroad since 1943, and resided in Palestine a number of years before moving to Houston in 1959; later, he moved to Freeport, and returned to Palestine in 1968. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the United Transportation Union, and the Church of Covenant Presbyterian Church, Houston.

Survivors include the wife, Mrs. Pauline Garner Dickey, Elkhart; two sons, Kenneth Wayne Dickey and Aurbin T. Dickey Jr., both of Houston; four brothers, Alvin Dickey of Tyler, Marvin Dickey of Dallas, Melvin Dickey of Palestine, and Robert Dickey of Bryan; two sisters, Mrs. Eads (Thelma) Blasser and Miss Sue Dickey, both of Palestine; a grandson, Stuart Dickey of Houston; several nieces and nephews.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
