Angie later organized the Church at Ninevah, where she said she was Jehovah

Angie who took two crack cocaine houses and started the church in September 1991. She didn't have any member, she had only herself, two great men of God, nephew Andrea Reed, Joseph Reed, Brother Melvin Wilson one of her best friends and now one of the Asst. Pastors of the Church, Dr. Alfonso Ramirez, her best friend and confidant, her back bone then and now, a pillow of the church of Ninevah, a great man of God and Robbie O.B. Dickson, who has always been there for Angie.

Her family states "We will never be able to describe her entire life, it was so richly filled with so many great blessings from God."

Angie was preceded in death by her parents; and her nephew, Joseph T. Reed.

She leaves to cherish her memories two brothers, John Dickson and his wife Linda, and Clarence Dickson and his wife Bettye all of Dallas; four sisters, Mary Dickson Green, Bobbie Dickson Reed, Robbie O.B. Dickson, and Maloyce Dickson all of Dallas; her best friend and confidant, Dr. Alfonso Ramirez; nephew, Andrea Reed, who will continue to preach at the church of Ninevah; Darrell Dickson Nodley of Arlington; Patrick Monroe of Tyler; Armelia Green; Taira L. Shay Dickson; and Bridget Baker all of Dallas. A host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends. Lots of children who called her their Mother in Christ and the entire Ninevah Church Family.
