

Pennington

HCC 8/19/2001

DUKE DICUS

Duke Dicus, age 73, of Crockett, passed away August 15, 2001, at his residence in Tyler. Mr. Dicus was born May 25, 1928 in Pemiscot County, Missouri, and had lived in Houston County since 1981, previously living in Baytown, and had previously moved to Tyler. He was a self-employed carpenter and a member of the Church of God.

Survivors include his wife, Jimmie Fay Dicus of Crockett; five children, including son, Marty Glen Dicus of Colorado; step-children, Joel Moore, and wife Becky of Mineola, John Moore, and wife Debbie of Jacksonville, and Jimmie Duncan, and husband Jimmie of Texarkana; 11 grandchildren; and sister, Elsie Mae Sexton, and husband, Dr. Alvis Sexton, of Arkansas.

Mr. Dicus was preceded in death by parents Floyd William Dicus and Lillian Elsie Dicus.

Funeral services for Mr. Dicus were held August 18 at 11 a.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel, with the Rev. David Taylor officiating. Interment followed in Pennington Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home