Robby
Lee Dodd

TRINITY - Services for Robby Lee Dodd, 35, were held at 11 a.m. Friday, Aug. 4, 2006, at the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Trinity with the Rev. Leroy Brown officiating.

Burial followed in the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery in Montgomery.

Mr. Dodd died Tuesday, Aug. 1, in Tyler following a sudden illness.

He was born March 3, 1971, in Houston and was employed as a carpenter, plumber and roofer in the construction industry. He enjoyed fishing and hunting during his spare time and was known as a person who was willing to help those in need.

Mr. Dodd was preceded in death by his father, Harrell Dodd.

Survivors include his mother, Beverly Shada; a half-brother, Douglas Ray Shulz; a half-sister, Shirll Jo Smith; his maternal grandmother, Dell Lovine Brockus; his paternal grandfather, Robbie Thornton; his best friends, Liz and Joey; and a number of special friends and his dog, Grunt.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
