Irven Self Duggan

Mr. Irven Self Duggan, 61, of Crockett died Friday afternoon, following an auto accident on the Houston highway, five miles south of Crockett.

Mr. Duggan had lived in Crockett the last 15 years, and was owner of the coin car wash plant. He was a member of All Saints Episcopal Church.

Funeral services were held at 4 p.m. Sunday in the All Saints Episcopal Church with Dr. James Savoy officiating. Burial was in Evergreen Memorial park.

Pallbearers were Robert King, Jack Beasley, Bob Wray, Sam Arledge, Clive Dickey; Reed Ferguson, Jim Rector, R. S. Ormand, and C. L. Edminston.

Survivors include the widow Mrs. Polly Duggan of Crockett; a son, Irven Edward Duggan of Houston; two brothers, Rollie Duggan of Hobart, Okla., and T.J. Duggan of West Plains, Mo.; four sisters, Mrs. Si Foot and Mrs. Herbert Onstot, both of Claifornia, Mrs. Edgar Portwood of Hobart, Okla., and Mrs. Myrtle Riffle of Gainesville; and one grandchild.

Waller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
