

Grapeland Messenger 11/17/2005

Clay H. Duncan

Funeral services for Clay H. Duncan were held Friday, November 11, 2005 at 10a.m. at Sparkman/Hillcrest Funeral Home Chapel. Interment followed at 3 p.m. at Davis Cemetery in Grapeland.

Mr. Duncan passed away on November 10, 2005 in Dallas, Texas. He was born on November 27, 1916 in Osborn, Missouri to Joseph and Bernice Duncan. He received his law degree from Arkansas Law School and retired with 34 years of service as an attorney with the US Corps of Engineers. Clay leaves behind a legacy of love and friendship. He was dedicated to helping others including his family and friends. He will be dearly missed.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brothers, Joseph, Jr., Norman and Robert Duncan.

He is survived by beloved wife of 57 years, Inez Duncan of Dallas; brother, Jim Duncan of Osborn, MO; and many nieces and nephews.