

H. L. "LYNN" DUNCAN

Mr. H.L. "Lynn" Duncan, age 52 of Kennard, passed away Sunday, April 2, 2006 at his residence. Mr. Duncan was born December 18, 1953. Mr. Duncan was a retired welding teacher for the Texas Youth Commission. Mr. Duncan taught Ag Science for 25 years in various schools throughout East Texas. Mr. Duncan was a 1976 graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University with a BS in agriculture. Mr. Duncan touched many lives in his 28 years of teaching, and will be remembered and missed by many. Mr. Duncan was of the Pentecostal faith.

Survivors include his beloved wife of 32 years, Carol "Boo" Duncan, of Kennard; son and daughter-in-law Cody and LeAnn Duncan, of Kennard; daughter and son-in-law, Brandi and Roy Rogers, of Kennard; grandchildren Levi and Gracie Duncan and Kate Rogers; mother Mrs. Gertie Jones, of Trinity; brother and sister-in-law Gerald and Eileen Duncan, of Trinity; father-in-law and mother-in-law Adell and Maurine Moncrief, of Lufkin; sister-in-law and brother-in-law Dell and Jerry Sawyer, of Lufkin; nephews Reagan Duncan and Jason Sawyer; nieces, LaVinia Bollier and Shonna Wigley; special friends Gary Graham and Billy Jones; numerous great nieces, great nephews and other relatives.

Funeral Services for Mr. H. L. "Lynn" Duncan, were held Wednesday, April 5, at 10:00 a.m. in the Gipson-Metcalf Funeral Home Chapel, with Reverend Reagan Duncan and Reverend Kenneth Young officiating. Interment followed in the Ivie Cemetery in Houston County

Pallbearers will be Gary

Graham, Billy Jones, Bob Wortham, Bill Hobson, Joe Adamo and Jack Null.

Gipson-Metcalf Funeral Directors

HCC
April 6, 2006