

Clapp

Dennis Doyle Durdin

TRINITY - Services for Dennis Doyle Durdin, 55, of Trinity, were held on Tuesday, Dec. 24, 2002, at the Waller-Thornton Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Leroy Brown officiating.

Burial followed in Clapp Cemetery.

Mr. Durdin died Sunday, Dec. 22, at his residence.

He was born Aug. 25, 1947 in Trinity, the son of Peggy Walker and Doyle Durdin. He had been employed for 27 years by Champion Paper and was currently working for the City of Trinity.

Mr. Durdin attended school to obtain a license to manage and operate the local waste water system. He was a member of the Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his father.

Survivors include two sons and a daughter-in-law, Dennis Duane and Tiffany Durdin and Darren Douglas; two daughters and a son-in-law, Deborah Denice and Jay Canter and Dixie D'Anna Durdin; his mother and step-father, Peggy and L.W. Rodgers; a sister and brother-in-law, Cathy and Bob Ellis; his ex-wife, Thersa Durdin; four grandchildren, Ethan Kyle, Allison Fay, Brianna Chyenne and Gerald Morgan; a step-granddaughter and her spouse, Saddle and Will Guthrie; a step-great-granddaughter, Lanie Nichole; a nephew and his spouse, Michael Flynn and Robin; a niece, Erin Suzanne; a great-niece, Kaleigh; and a step-brother, Daniel Lakins.

Pallbearers included Phil Patchett, Keith Alford, Phillip Knight, James Drake, D.C. Musgrove, Jessie Locke and Nolan Blair. Honorary pallbearers were Bo Blackman and Buddy Johnson.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.