Aubert C. Dykes Jr.

Mr. Aubert C. Dykes Jr., 46 of Crockett, died at his residence Thursday morning.

Mr. Dykes was in the building and lumber business here, where he had lived the last 10 years. A native of Arkansas, he was a member of the First Methodist Church, and a veteran of World War II as a pilot with the U.S. Navy. Mr. Dykes was a graduate of Georgia Tech. He was a Scottish Rite Mason and Shriner, and a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He had served as chairman of the official board of the First Methodist Church, vice president of the Crockett school board, and president of the Rotary Club.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Friday in the First Methodist Church, with Rev. L. B. Broach and Rev. Weldon B. Morton officiating. Services followed at 5 p.m. at the graveside in the Farmerville, La., Cemetery, with interment following.

Active pallbearers were Ross Kinslow, Allen Rogers, Dr. Richard D. Haines, Dr. James C. Moore, Dr. A. B. Brown, Jr., and W. D. Julian. Honorary pallbearers were James Rector, Dr. J. B. Land, Clive Dickey, A. C. Satterwhite, R. E. Thibodeaux and Wm. Smith.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Jean Dykes of Crockett; a son, A. C. Dykes III of Crockett; two daughters, Mrs. Pamela Levert of New Orleans and Miss Donna Jean Dykes of Crockett; his mother, Mrs. A. C. Dykes Sr. of Crockett; a brother, Roland Dykes of Dallas.

Waller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

From the collection donated to the Houston County Historical Commission. This collection was part of the papers that Mrs. Nannie English had. The original is preserved to protect it from further damage.
