

H.C.C.
9-18-1999

EARL EASLEY

Mr. Earl Easley, age 74 of Bacliff, passed away Aug. 12, 1999, in Bacliff. Mr. Easley was born July 17, 1925, in Palestine.

Mr. Easley enjoyed life and helping people in anyway, including financially. He lived in Bacliff for many years and was a self-employed outboard mechanic for small and large outboard motors. He worked for Western Auto in Crockett with Adrian Davis. He loved to hunt deer and squirrel. He was a member of the First Assembly of God Church since 1967. The love of his life was his home, family and many friends. There will be a memorial service held in Bacliff at a later date.

Survivors include wife Jennie Easley of Bacliff; son Joe Easley and wife Linda of Hughes Springs; step-sons James A. Salisbury and wife Jackie of Pensacola, Fl., John A. Salisbury of Bacliff and Jerry Salisbury and wife Darla of Magnolia; step-daughter Julie Salisbury and husband Bryan of Denton; brothers Junior Easley of Crockett, Jessie Carroll Easley and wife Rita of Monahan, Julian and Carolina Ramirez of Woodville; sisters Dell Wolf of Jacksonville, Helen Kilpatrick of Crockett, Wanda Faye Kilpatrick of Houston and Bobbie Easley of Crockett; nine grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Easley were held Aug. 14 at 2 p.m. in Elmwood Cemetery near Palestine with Larry Burchfield officiating. Interment followed.

Mr. Easley's nephews acted as pallbearers.

Waller-Ramsey Funeral Home