

Emmons

Funeral services for Gay Laniene Emmons, were held Saturday, February 3, 2007, at Pace Funeral Home, with the Revs. Lee Poe and Bryan Dickens officiating. Interment followed in Forest Hills Cemetery.

She was born in Livingston on September 30, 1939. She loved cats and dolls; they were like her children. She belonged to the Friendship Sunday School Class.

Miss Emmons died at her residence on February 1. Her father, Lois E. Emmons preceded her in death.

Survivors include her mother, Oletta Emmons; special friend, Lavon Turner and her husband, Bill; special friend and mentor, Ruth Atchley; aunts, Annie Watts and Love Monroe; and a host of cousins and friends.

Pace Funeral Home, Livingston, was in charge of arrangements. To sign the guest book, go to pacefuneral.com.