

Trinity Standard

2/9/2006

Warren Elwood Evans

MARSHALL - Graveside services for Warren Elwood Evans, of Karnack were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 2, 2006, in the Thornton Cemetery near Trinity with the Rev. Jerry Jones and the Rev. Tom Ratcliff officiating. Mr. Evans died Monday, Jan. 30, 2006, in Karnack.

Mr. Evans was born Aug. 10, 1924, in Trinity, Texas. He was the son of Oliver and Ellen Evans. Mr. Evans was employed as a safety inspector for Thiokol for 31 years.

Mr. Evans was married to Charlene Ann Evans on June 16, 1951, in Dallas, Texas. He worked in Dallas, Texas City and enjoyed woodworking and fishing.

Mr. Evans was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers, J.C. Evans, Raywood Evans and Roy Evans; two sisters, Clara Joyce Evans and an infant sister; and one granddaughter, Jenny Ann Evans.

Survivors include his wife; three sons and their spouses, Norman and Rose Evans of Hollywood, Ala., Joseph C. and Pam Evans of Jefferson and Earl and Deanna Evans of Forney; a sister and brother-in-law, Adelle and Wayne Owen of Trinity; a brother and sister-in-law, Horace and Gracie Evans of Pueblo, Colo.; eight grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers included Butch Owens, Paul Emmons, George Evans, Joe Evans and Ken Taylor.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that memorial contributions be made to Hearsay Hospice, 1306 Pinetree Rd., Longview, Texas; the American Cancer Society, 1301 S. Broadway, Tyler, Texas 75701; or the American Diabetes Association, 9430 Research Blvd., Echelon 11 Ste. 300, Austin, Texas 78759.

Sullivan-Heaster Funeral Home of Marshall directed the arrangements.