

Farrar

Funeral services for E.M. 'Slim' Farrar, 87, were held Saturday, February 17, 2007, in the Cochran Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev. Rickey Needham officiating. Burial followed in Restland Memorial Cemetery. Military honors were provided by VFW Post 8568.

He was born March 4, 1919 in Jayess, Mississippi, the son of Marshall and Linnie Mitcham Farrar.

Mr. Farrar served his country during World War II throughout Europe for five years. He owned and operated Farrar's Body Shop in Livingston for a number of years.

Mr. Farrar died Thursday, February 15, in Memorial Medical Center, Livingston. His parents; his wife, Gladys Farrar; brother, Carl Farrar; and sisters, Josie Calhoun and Laura Mae Lambert preceded him in death.

Survivors include his daughter and son-in-law, Annita and Don Baskin of Livingston; son and daughter-in-law, Ronald and Mearl Farrar of Livingston; grandchildren, Cary and Mary Baskin, Bradley and Ronda Farrar and Chad Farrar; great-grandchildren, Brittany, Trey, Elizabeth, Conner, Tyler and Allison; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Cary Baskin, Bradley Farrar, Chad Farrar, Trey Baskin, John Baskin and John Cain.

Cochran Funeral Home, Livingston, was in charge of arrangements.